

COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS – DESIGN-BUILD PROGRAM

Tuesday, July 16, 2013

BREAKFAST

7:30am-9:30am at Millennium Biltmore Hotel, LA

PRESENTATION OVERVIEW

The County of Los Angeles has been a leader in the transition by public owners from design-bid-build into design-build. Hear about the current state of the design-build program at the County and an overview of the upcoming projects.

Mr. Jacob Williams, Assistant Director - Los Angeles County Department of Public Works

Mr. Williams is responsible for management and delivery of the LA County Capital Projects Program currently valued in excess of $3B. Jacob led the County in a paradigm shift from traditional lowbid delivery to more advanced and integrated project delivery methods such as Design-Build on diverse project types including Health, Sheriff, Probation, Fire, Libraries, Information Technology, Parks & Recreation, Beaches, and Admin. During his career with the County, Jacob has served in a variety of senior executive positions and has been responsible directing and administering a wide array of Department business functions. Prior to joining County Public Works, Jacob served as a Project Manager and Principal Project Manager for the County's Internal Services Department from 1984 to 1995, where he headed the Northridge Earthquake Recovery program and managed the $200M Century Regional Justice Center.

Jacob received a Bachelor of Architecture degree from UC Berkeley. He is a CA licensed Architect with over 29 years of professional experience in architecture, project management, planning, and the administration of Capital Projects.

The LA County Public Works Dept. is the largest public works agency in the US, with an annual budget over two billion dollars.
