

IPD FOR DESIGN-BUILD

A presentation on the practical application of Integrated Project Delivery (IPD) and the IPD principles that relate to design-build delivery. The presentation will include examples of IPD strategies utilized on recently completed projects.

Wednesday, June 26, 2013 at 11:30am LUNCHEON

11:30am - 1:30pm at Doubletree Hotel, Sacramento

SPEAKER

Lisa Dal Gallo, Partner at Hanson Bridgett

Lisa has more than 25 years of experience in the construction industry. Prior to becoming a lawyer, she worked for several years in project management and engineering for a large national construction company holding various field and office positions. During that time, she completed millions of dollars worth of work-in-place for the core-and-shell and tenant improvement divisions in the following sectors: hospitals and other healthcare facilities, laboratories, retail space, office towers, high-rise residential, and light industrial. The primary focus of her transactional practice is advising owners, designers, contractors or project teams regarding multi-million dollar design and construction deal structures utilizing collaborative and integrated delivery processes. Lisa has co-authored respected industry papers such as "Integrated Project Delivery-The Game Changer" and "How IPD Can Help Your Project Succeed". (J.D. Syracuse University 1996/ B.S. Construction Management Chico State 1986)
