

Removing Barriers & Building Lasting Relationships

2018 DBIA WESTERN PACIFIC REGION
2ND ANNUAL CONFERENCE
MAY 17, 2018 SAN DIEGO, CA

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: December 15, 2017

The Design-Build Institute of America (DBIA) Western Pacific Region will be hosting its second annual conference on May 17, 2018 at the Manchester Grand Hyatt in San Diego, California. The conference theme this year is "Removing Barriers & Building Lasting Relationships".

The goal of the conference is to provide a platform for experienced, knowledgeable, and well-spoken industry experts to highlight key aspects of design-build project delivery including best practices, lessons learned, noted challenges, and/or emerging trends.

DBIA promotes the value of design-build project delivery and teaches the effective integration of design and construction services to enhance the value proposition for owners and design and construction practitioners. Only submissions that align with these core purposes will be considered.

We are seeking presentations from topics on acquisition strategies to post-award and operations.

Although there is no restriction on topics to be submitted, the following have been identified as areas of interest:

- ◆ Lean Practices in Design-Build
- ◆ Managing Design in Design-Build
- ◆ Design Excellence Strategies and Techniques
- ◆ Design-Build on Smaller Projects
- ◆ Design-Build for Infrastructure
- ◆ Means for Fostering Collaborative Cultures
- ◆ Integrated Processes that Enhance Design-Build
- ◆ Progressive Design-Build Case Histories
- ◆ Teamwork and Collaboration:
- ◆ Structuring a Dynamic Design-Build Team
- ◆ Early Engagement of the Team (designer, specialty trades, owner, etc.)
- ◆ Integration Tools and Techniques that Enhance Collaboration
- ◆ Owner Roles/Responsibilities in Executing a Design-Build Project
- ◆ Owner Considerations in Choosing an Integrated Delivery Model
- ◆ Understanding Performance-Based Requirements
- ◆ Evaluating Procurement Methodologies
- ◆ Writing and Responding to the RFQ/RFP

Removing Barriers & Building Lasting Relationships

2018 DBIA WESTERN PACIFIC REGION 2ND ANNUAL CONFERENCE MAY 17, 2018 SAN DIEGO, CA

HOW ARE PRESENTATIONS EVALUATED AND SELECTED?

A program committee from DBIA Western Pacific Region will evaluate all submissions received. Teams will be notified no later than January 15, 2018.

SUBMITTING YOUR PRESENTATION IDEA

Submit your presentation idea to Terry Carrow to terry@foresightpartners.net, Deadline Dec, 15, 2017.

If you can answer "yes" to the following questions, please consider submitting a presentation topic for consideration:

1. Is your content fresh and highly relevant to the successful execution of design-build and/or other integrated delivery methodologies?
2. Are there at least four concrete and substantive strategies, "lessons learned" or practical tools that attendees can take away from your session and apply to their next capital project?
3. Are you (and co-presenters where relevant) dynamic presenters and comfortable engaging in audience Q&A?
4. If proposing a case study, is the owner confirmed to participate in the presentation, and is there a clear lesson/message?

PRESENTATION OVERVIEW

1. Presentation Title - Title should capture the essence of the topic to be discussed and should not exceed 10 to 12 words.
2. Presentation Summary - Please provide an overview of the session intent and why the topic is relevant to successful integrated delivery. The summary statement should not exceed 75 words and may be used for marketing purposes should your presentation be selected.
3. Program Abstract – This 200 to 500-word description should explain how the program relates to design-build project delivery and how attendees will benefit from this session.
4. Four Major Presentation Points - Points should be succinct and answer the question "what will attendees learn and/or take away from this session?"
